PRESS RELEASE

University of Hyderabad Clarifies its Position on a Complaint of Discrimination

The University of Hyderabad reaffirms its unwavering commitment to the constitutional values of equality, dignity, inclusiveness, and social justice. The University maintains a zero-tolerance approach towards any form of discrimination based on caste, region, religion, language, gender, or socio-economic background.

Any statement or conduct that demeans, stigmatises, or marginalises individuals or communities is contrary to the values upheld by the University and the principles enshrined in the Constitution of India, and is strongly condemned and discouraged.

The University's Equal Opportunity Cell, constituted in accordance with UGC guidelines to promote equity, inclusion, and protection against discrimination, is examining the complaint raised in this matter. The University assures all stakeholders that the matter will be addressed through due process, and appropriate action, if warranted, will be taken in accordance with the findings of the inquiry and the applicable legal and regulatory framework.

The University appeals to all members of the academic community and the public to refrain from speculation and allow the established process to take its course.

The University reiterates its commitment towards fostering a safe, inclusive, and respectful campus environment for all.
